Rule 4001-1 of the Local Rules of the US Bankruptcy Court for the District of Puerto Rico establishes the following procedure for Motions Requesting Relief from Stay under 11 U.S.C. §362

1. Movant must serve both the motion for relief from stay and notice that substantially conforms to PR LBF J within three (3) days after issuance of the notice.
2. The respondent shall file an answer within fourteen (14) days after the issuance of the notice. If respondent does not file a timely answer, the Court may enter judgment for the movant and the matter off the Court's calendar.
3. The notice must set for the specific date for the preliminary hearing on the motion for relief from stay.
4. Pursuant to §362 (e) of the Code, the hearing date specified in the notice may be a preliminary hearing or may consolidated with the final hearing, as shall be determined by the Court.
5. If movant seeks relief with respect to a stay of an act against property under 11 USC§362 (d)(1) or (d) (2) the motion must be accompanied by the following supporting documents:
 - a. True copies of all notes, bonds, mortgages, security agreements, financing agreements, assignments and any other document upon which the movant will rely the hearing.
 - b. A detailed report of any appraiser whose testimony is to be presented at the hearing. Said detail report shall include the qualifications of the appraiser, the factual basis for the appraisal, including comparable sales if utilized and the method of appraisal.
 - c. A statement of amount due including a breakdown of the following categories:
 1. Unpaid principal
 2. Accrued interest from a specific sate to a specific date
 3. Late charges from a specific date to a specific date
 4. Attorney's fees
 5. Advances for taxes, Insurance and the like
 6. Unearned interest
 7. Any other charges
 8. A per diem Interest factor
6. At least three (3) days prior to the preliminary hearing, the respondent shall file with the Court and deliver to movant or his attorney, if so represented, a detailed report of any appraiser whose testimony is to be presented at the hearing. Said detailed report shall include the qualifications of the appraiser, the factual basic for the appraisal including comparable sales if utilized and the method of appraisal. In addition, he shall also file a copy of any other document that he intends to use at the hearing
7. If the motion for relief from stay is contested, counsel for the parties must confer with respect to the Issues raised in the motion, in order to determine whether a consent order may be entered and/or to stipulate to relevant facts about the value of the property and to the extent and validity of any security agreement.
